

Tarrant County Veterans Council

The Tarrant County Veterans Council is best known for producing and directing the Annual Veterans Day Parade through Downtown Fort Worth, Texas.

We are a coalition of Veteran Service Organizations throughout the Tarrant County area.

In 2020, we celebrated the DAV's (Disabled American Veterans) Century of Service to Veterans. The DAV was founded by former Cincinnati Judge Robert S. Marx in 1920.

We welcome you to be part of this inspirational experience and keep the tradition alive by volunteering, financial support, parade entry or cheering along the route.

The only thing better than watching a great parade is being in one; and the only thing better than that is putting one on.

We welcome you to be a part of this great experience

Volunteering, donating, parade entry or cheering along the route

Because of our great partners waving fees, providing services, equipment and volunteers we keep the funds needed low. These contributions cannot be overvalued, without this support the Veterans Day Parade would not be possible. Unfortunately, some financial needs still remain every year. The council is a volunteer organization with no paid employees, all donations are used to support our mission, and everyone is invited to help out. Please see our website www.tcovco.org/ for membership, Parade Committee participation and donation information.

Everyone that wants to help keep this a great parade is invited to join the Parade Committee, no dues or affiliation with a VSO necessary. Details are on our webpage. www.tcovco.org
